

We can't promise you a rainbow...

But we can promise you Magic...

Santa Fe ❖ La Fonda on the Plaza is passionate about weddings – romantic, intimate, truly one-of-a-kind weddings, designed exactly how the bride and groom imagined their perfect day to be. Our banquet and catering staff are beautifully trained in the art of weddings and our Wedding Specialist, Samie Doerfler, choreographs each detail so that the celebration – from ceremony to reception to last dance – comes together seamlessly.

And, it's all about the details.

We offer a portfolio of creative vendors who know all the possibilities of La Fonda on the Plaza and work in concert with our catering and banquet staff to produce a perfect wedding.

La Terraza – Our Favorite

La Terraza is a unique and luxurious banquet room and the hands-down favorite of all of our brides. This lovely space has an Italian marble floor, handsome copper and tin chandeliers, a hand-sculpted kiva fireplace, dramatic stained glass skylights, and French doors that fold open, bringing in the natural light and extending the space onto the lush la Terraza Garden Patio. And it goes without saying, that our food is beautifully prepared and served. Our staff delights in weddings and they are professionally trained to attend to every detail.

Other delightful possibilities

Our Lumpkins Ballroom is the largest in the city – 6,560 square feet, accommodating 600 for a reception and 500 for a plated dinner. And if you're planning a grand wedding, this lovely space evokes warmth and charm. For a more intimate wedding, our New Mexico Room, with its hand-carved beamed ceiling and beautiful tin-and-glass chandeliers was the hotel's original ballroom in the 1920s. It has retained an authentic, Old World ambience and accommodates 180 for a banquet and 250 for a reception. The Santa Fe Room is a jewel, offering a 25' high cathedral ceiling, hammered tin chandeliers, a carved tile wood-burning fireplace, and unique 1920s artwork. The room has 1,250 square feet that can accommodate 70 for dinner or 100 for a reception.

Hosting your Guests

Santa Fe is the perfect Destination Wedding spot, and La Fonda on the Plaza offers so many lovely guest room possibilities. We have 167 rooms and suites, each one boasting delightful creature comforts and true Santa Fe hospitality. We have a day spa, and our award-winning dining room, La Plazuela, is filled with light and 460 hand-painted windows. It is one of Santa Fe's most beloved gathering places, and the food, the award-winning wine list and the service are amazing.

An Intimate Retreat

The Terrace at La Fonda – 14 luxury rooms & suites – is deluxe and very private, and only steps away from La Terraza. It is often booked exclusively by the wedding party.

So...

That's the story of a La Fonda on the Plaza Wedding.
And, as we said in the beginning, we can't promise a rainbow,
but we can promise a wedding full of magic.
