LA FONDA ON THE PLAZA HOSTS SANTA FE’S FIRST URBAN RAPPELLING EVENT AS FUNDRAISER FOR GIRLS INC.

August 4th “Conquer Heights, Empower Girls” event to send 92 adventurers “over the edge” of landmark hotel

SANTA FE, N.M. (May xx, 2018) — On August 4th, all eyes will be trained on the rooftop of the landmark La Fonda on the Plaza hotel. That’s where almost 100 brave, community-minded adventurers will gather to begin a thrilling, six-story rappel down to the heart of historic Santa Fe as part of “Conquer Heights, Empower Girls” a fundraiser for Girls Inc. of Santa Fe.

The non-profit is a chapter of the national organization advocating on behalf of girls and providing programs to empower them. The event is hosted by La Fonda on the Plaza with signature sponsor Meow Wolf.

The first 92 people to raise $1000 or more for Girls Inc. of Santa Fe will secure a spot in the urban rappel event, a first for the city. Those “edgers” who raise additional amounts will enjoy extra perks such as a Go Pro video of their descent, a superhero cape and admission to a VIP after-party at Meow Wolf.

The rappel is being orchestrated by Over the Edge, an urban rappelling event organizer for nonprofits. Over the Edge will provide the equipment, and certified rope technicians.
Registration is now open here. Individuals may register and then ask friends to sponsor them. Company employees are also encouraged to raise funds to “toss their boss.” Friends can challenge each other, and rappel down the façade of La Fonda side-by-side. Individuals or groups who don’t wish to rappel themselves can sponsor a teen from Girls Inc. to conquer heights and give her an unforgettable experience.

“We’ve all seen in recent years how important it is to help girls develop confidence and be ‘strong, smart and bold,’ as Girls Inc. puts it,” said La Fonda Chairman of the Board Jennifer Kimball. “I would not be where I am today without all the people who taught me that girls can do everything—including leap tall buildings in a single bound.”
