History of La Fonda on the Plaza Now Available

From Every Window: A Glimpse of the Past

Unpublished– La Fonda on the Plaza has published a booklet detailing the legendary landmark hotel’s history, art and tradition.

“La Fonda on the Plaza sits on the oldest hotel corner in the oldest capital city in the United States. Its history is intimately entwined with the history of Santa Fe,” says La Fonda’s Chairman of the Board, Jennifer Kimball. “We wanted to provide our guests with the story of Santa Fe told from La Fonda’s unique vantage-point.”

From Every Window: A Glimpse of the Past covers hospitality in Old Santa Fe, the Fred Harvey era, legends and lore, and Santa Fe Style.

“Our history is an important touch stone for the future,” says La Fonda’s General Manager, John Rickey. “The stories add to our guests’ and our staff’s knowledge of the hotel’s past, providing them with an even deeper understanding of why La Fonda is important in the community and beyond our doors.”

The attractive 32-page booklet is available in La Fonda’s Gift Shop for $10.00 or can be read in digital format online at www.lafondasantafe.com/about
